"A Question of Principle."

Very well; let it be held to be a question of principle, and then you cannot ask the old Whigs to surrender their tariff principles. We are glad to find the Democratic papers of Vigninia taking a practical view of this question of raising a tariff issue. The Stanton Vindicator, published in the old Whig county of Augusta, which has never since 1809 failed to roll up a large majority for the Democratic candidate for every important to effect, takes out in meeting as follows.
